VENUES

The Summit of G7 Heads of State and Government will be held at Borgo Egnazia (BR), in Italy's Apulia Region.

- Borgo Egnazia resort → Summit Venue
- Fiera del Levante exhibition centre → Media/Broadcasting Centre

A maximum-security area covering the entire resort of Borgo Egnazia will be set up as a 'red zone'. For security reasons, it will not be possible to access the Summit venue by private vehicle. Within the red zone, those present will mainly move around on foot or using hybrid/electric vehicles (provided to delegations, police and emergency services).

Please note that only authorised categories will be allowed to enter this area (NO journalists-photographers and TV crews).

INTERNATIONAL MEDIA AND BROADCASTING CENTRE

Fiera del Levante exhibition centre – BARI

The International Media Centre will provide workspaces for journalists and TV booths at the Fiera del Levante exhibition centre.

FACILITIES AND SERVICES AVAILABLE

- Workstations for journalists: 900 equipped with power and USB sockets
- 24-hour catering service
- Open coffee stations in various areas of the Media Centre
- Wi-Fi
- Common area with wireless printers and photocopiers
- CCTV - monitors showing footage of Summit highlights
- Monitors displaying information
- Information and distribution desk
- Help desk for technical support

MEDIA ACCOMMODATION

The list of partner hotels will be available on the Ega Triumph website.

Media operators may in any case request a list of partner accommodation providers located in the city of Bari by sending an email to:

g7press@triumph-ega.com

MEDIA ACCREDITATION

Media representatives can request accreditation for the G7 Summit to be held in Apulia (Borgo Egnazia – BR) on 13-15 June:

- from 10:00 on Friday 3 May 2024
- until 24:00 (local time) on Monday 20 May 2024

Journalists, photographers and camera operators interested in accessing the Media Centre and following the media programme and closing press conference in person are required to request accreditation using the G7 Portal, by registering at the link <https://www.g7-2024.it/>

POOLS

Considering the high level of interest in the event, and in certain cases due to space restrictions, pools will be organised to follow the various segments of the media programme. Media representatives need to book their place in accordance with the instructions that will be provided over the coming weeks.

Media representatives will in any case receive a pool card valid for the pool they are assigned to. They will be notified of timings and meeting points and will be accompanied by G7 press officers in designated vehicles.

HOST BROADCASTER

RAI - RADIOTELEVISIONE ITALIANA

MEDIA REPOSITORY

A selection of photos and videos from the event will be provided by the Summit's official operators and made available on Flickr.

INTERPRETATION

English will be the official language of the working sessions.

Interpretation services in languages other than English will be available depending on the organiser's arrangements and what has been agreed by each delegation.

OFFICIAL PHOTOGRAPHERS/CAMERA OPERATORS/SOCIAL MEDIA MANAGERS

Only G7 delegations will be allowed an official photographer, camera operator and social media manager; they must be accredited online in addition to the official delegation, specifying their role.

They will be distinguishable by a specific badge/pin.

They will have access to all segments of the media programme and the bilaterals involving their delegation, but will nevertheless be organised and accompanied by Italian G7 Presidency staff (NO accompanying press officers from foreign delegations).

They will not be obliged to stay inside the Media Centre; they will be able to remain with their core delegation at Borgo Egnazia.

PRESS BRIEFING ROOMS

Press briefing rooms will be available at the Media Centre.

PLANNED PRESS OPPORTUNITIES

- ARRIVAL OF THE HEADS OF DELEGATION AT THE AIRPORTS OF BARI AND BRINDISI
- WELCOME CEREMONY FOR THE HEADS OF DELEGATION
